ORGANIZATIONAL IMPACT

At Yolo County Children’s Alliance (YCCA)
- All of our programs support parental resilience by making parents feel valued, acknowledged, and supported in every interaction we have with them. We also spend a lot of time focusing on parental resilience with our Healthy Families America home visiting and Nurturing Parenting programs.
- We promote social connections for parents and youth with programs like our Nurturing Parenting and Play School Education.
- We help families get important concrete supports in times of need by providing food, resources and referrals, Voluntary Income Tax Assistance, enrolling people in health insurance and CalFresh and providing childcare payments through our CalWORKS Child Care Subsidy program.
- Parents learn about parenting and child development and how to support children’s social and emotional competence through our Healthy Families America home visiting, Play School Education, Developmental Screening, Nurturing Parenting, and Period of PURPLE Crying outreach programs.
- We help families and individuals secure housing and prepare those who have been homeless to live independently in a permanent residence. By providing housing support, we help build safe and nurturing households for children and families, and strengthen our community by providing individuals secure and safe homes.

ROLE IMPACT

Your impact as the Housing Program Assistant Manager helps YCCA in meeting the needs of the communities we serve by providing team support for on-site case management services to individuals and families experiencing homelessness. Through your work as a supervisor helping your team of housing advocates, you will help program participants maintain their current housing or transition to permanent housing by providing access to key resources that help bring positive change to their lives.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A HOUSING ASSISTANT MANAGER

You will work with the Family Resource Center Housing team to help prepare program participants to avoid eviction and maintain current housing or transition to permanent housing using housing first and strength-based principles. In addition, you will also maintain a caseload, enter data, and turn in periodic reports.

Daily duties may include:
- Conduct weekly, regularly scheduled individual supervision for all direct service staff on your team
- Provide daily team and client support for crisis intervention and case management needs as they arise
- Ensure that home navigators keep family files and case notes maintained and up to date
• Provide follow-up on regular health and safety check-ins (in person, by phone, or electronically) with program participants
• Assist with securing basic needs, such as food, healthcare, income, and stable housing
• Lead and Facilitate communication between program participants and social service programs
• Deliver resource and service information, including about COVID-19, using culturally and linguistically appropriate terms and concepts
• Follow ethical/legal standards, including confidentiality and mandated reporting
• Practice CDC health and safety guidelines for COVID-19 (wearing a mask, practicing social distancing, and frequent handwashing) and ensure that program participants adhere to these standards
• Actively participate in staff meetings and other community meetings, as indicated
• Identify, organize, maintain, and disseminate information to team and program participants on a wide variety of economic supports, housing options, and other useful resources in Yolo County (CalFresh, CalWORKS, MediCal, Vets benefits, supportive housing options, food distribution services, etc.)
• Provide leadership to YCCA’s Housing (Prevention team) Program by working with staff and YCCA’s collaborative partners to execute our contracts, scopes of work including enrollment, outreach, and presentations.
• Plans, coordinates and attends all special events at the Family Resource Center (FRC), which include: staff involvement, budgeting, decoration, food preparation, party favors, delegation of duties and researching possible donations.
• Works closely with the Program Manager to ensure compliance with the program’s policies and procedures.
• Participates in recruitment, screening, and hiring of staff.
• Creates and maintains the work schedule for staff.
• Ensures accurate and timely submission of data and timesheets.
• Participates in the development of reports to contract funding sources.
• Participates and communicates feedback of progress toward contract milestones.
• Ensures accurate and timely submission of MAA timesheets.
• Reviews data of program outcomes and, when necessary, implements strategies to improve outcomes.
• Works closely with Program Manager to ensure systems are in place for data collection and to ensure program milestones.
• Works with team to ensure systems are in place for data collection.
• Completes all required documentation, case notes, and data collection in a timely manner.
• Schedules and coordinates staff activities for outreach events.
• Works closely with Housing staff to provide program information to the community.
• Creates and develops partnerships with outside community agencies.
• Participates in YCCA training, activities, and meetings as required.
• Orders supplies for daily operations and manages on-site issues with electronics (printer, internet/phone, and water dispenser).
• Perform other duties as assigned.
